

Student Exchange + English Bridge Program

Do you need to increase your English language proficiency in order to take part in the student exchange program at the University of New Mexico?

Students take two CELAC intensive English classes and are allowed up to three academic courses as part of the exchange

Students may also participate in all regularly scheduled CELAC cultural field trips and activities at no additional charge

CELAC course options include Academic Reading, Academic Writing, Conversation, and Grammar

Discounted price for two CELAC classes is $2550 and the minimum TOEFL score for the Bridge Program is 500 PBT or 61 iBT. Placement exam at CELAC upon arrival

After your Bridge Program you can transition to full-time academic courses if you reach the TOEFL score of 68 (IELTS 6.0)