* individual grades cannot be assigned due to the different grading systems

Information:

1 Applies only for CULS

- The rounding required in grade conversion is agreed upon with the Faculty of Business, Economics and
- Individual universities assign grades according to other systems. In these cases an individual conversion
- These conversion tables do not apply to foreign exchange students who wish to have their grades recognized at the University of Applied Sciences, and do not apply to foreign applicants applying for regular studies at the University of Applied Sciences
- In other countries (e.g. Turkey, Switzerland) the grading systems differ from university to university, so an individual conversion is necessary. This also applies to many non-European countries like Canada and Australia
