

A World Without Walls 2010

"An International Conference on Peace building, Reconciliation and Globalization in an Interdependent World"

Held on the 21st Anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall
(Berlin, 6th - 10th November 2010)

Call for Applications

The Institute for Cultural Diplomacy is pleased to announce that applications are currently being accepted for A World Without Walls 2010, our forthcoming international conference. The five-day event will comprise lectures and panel discussions featuring international experts and high profile figures from the fields of politics, diplomacy, academia, and civil society. The audience will include young professionals, students and scholars, political and diplomatic representatives, journalists, and civil society practitioners from across the world.

The theme of A World Without Walls 2010 will be "Peacebuilding, Reconciliation, and Globalisation in an Interdependent World". The academic components will explore the most salient conflicts in the world today, from the local level to the global level, and will consider traditional, contemporary, and modern approaches to peacebuilding and conflict de-escalation.
